Survivor to Thriver

Our board recently heard the story of a survivor we worked with in the therapeutic setting to facilitate personal healing and restoration. She shared several very poignant remarks:

"Up until now I have always seen life as a 'life sentence' - something I had to get through and endure. But now, for the first time in my life I actually am looking forward to the rest of my life."

"I realize now I have an important story to tell. I always knew I had a story to tell, but now I know it is this one."

How amazingly cool is that?!?!

We are also starting to form relationships with other local groups working with survivors of commercial sexual exploitation providing counseling and support.

has a broad outreach, addressing prevention through awareness and education programs, protection through sheltering and transition homes, prosecution of traffickers and legal aid to survivors, and partnerships with local law enforcement, service providers and community members.

We just hosted our first training series for Hepzibah House Volunteers!

I realized in working with survivors, even before the residential piece opened, I needed to clone myself. So I told several active supporters about a training I was considering - hoping for three or four committed women to respond.

Instead, we had twelve women sign-up for the training! Wow!! I was shocked at the enthusiastic response!

The training is time intensive on my part, and very demanding on the trainees as well. We will evaluate what needs we still have once the follow-up commitments are completed and consider when the next training will be.

Undaunted:

Daring to do what God calls you to do, by Christine Caine

The A21 Campaign stands for Abolish Injustice in the 21st Century. Christine Caine and her husband, Nick, founded it in 2008 to address human trafficking, sexual exploitation and slave labor.

Undaunted tells the story of how the A21 Campaign came about - weaving Christine Caine's personal story of abuse, abandonment, adoption and struggles with fear into the account to communicate the reality that God uses our life experiences to prepare and equip us.

A book review for Undaunted is in the right column.

Thanks again for your interest in Hepzibah House and what is perhaps the foremost justice issue of our time: human trafficking and the repercussions in individual lives.

rescued her from a life where she was unnamed, unwanted, and unqualified. She tells how she overcame abuse, abandonment, fears, and other challenges to go on a mission of adventure, fueled by faith and filled with love and courage. Her personal stories inspire readers to hear their name called, just as Christine heard her own---'You are beloved. You are the hope. You are chosen'---to go into a dark and troubled world, knowing each of us possess all it takes to bring hope, create change, and live completely for Christ. Part inspirational tale, part manifesto to stir readers to lives of adventure, Undaunted shows the way with spiritual wisdom and insight.
